Duane Morris’ Business Reorganization and Financial Restructuring attorneys draw upon decades of experience and versatility as business advisors across every major industry. They create the strategies necessary to derive maximum corporate value under what are often very difficult and rapidly changing circumstances. In addition to representing the full range of parties-in-interest including creditors, committees and trustees, the attorneys in the practice offer the unique perspective gained from representing commercial debtors in both in-court and out-of-court restructurings. The practice is recognized as one of the most active in the United States.

Members of the group regularly assist banks, non-bank lenders, special servicers, debt purchasers and trustees across a wide range of commercial finance matters—from the disposition of distressed assets to individual secured and unsecured commercial loans of all sizes, syndicated loan transactions, agented multilender transactions, real estate acquisition and construction loans and securitizations of virtually every type.
